Dear client!

We are delighted to present our 2019 charter catalogue.

With 495 well-equipped yachts on 24 charter bases in six countries and our extensive worldwide charter programme we open the new season. In Croatia we have 14 bases, 6 of which are our own. Here we have our new charter base Punat on the island of Krk, and our established Pitter base Veruda/Pula, great starting points for cruises in the northern Adriatic.

In Greece you can use our new Pitter base in Volos and explore the wonderful sailing estuary of the das northern Sporades. Following the trend, you can find our growing charter fleet for Greece at our three bases in Lefkas, Lavrion and Volos. Also Turkey is growing in popularity amongst sailors. In the Caribbean, in addition to our base in St. Lucia, we have also planned a new base in Cuba.

As new seasons bring new developments you will find, next to our large range of various yachts, models of our new selection of Dufour yachts. Numerous new yachts of different brands and types will complete our fleet in 2019.

Check out our new charter catalogue and discover more. We strive to offer you the best service and good quality at fair prices. Your satisfaction is our goal!

Your Pitter Yachtcharter Team

Special charter offers

Do you want a traffic-free and stress-free holiday, or simply a short mini-holiday in-between?

Then make use of our special charter offers:

Short charter

Following the trend, Pitter Yachtcharter is offering even more possibilities for short charter sailing trips. These are ideal for a short holiday in-between, but they are also very popular to get to know the sport of sailing, or alternatively a new crew or as training. Our short charter offers are always up-to-date on our homepage or can be called up directly at our office.

10-day charter

What if one week is not enough relaxation for you, but 2 weeks are not possible?

We can offer you a happy medium with our 10-day charter model. Charter from Wednesday to Saturday or the other way around, Saturday to Tuesday (10 days) and escape the rush hour!

Wednesday-to-Wednesday charter

Start your holiday in a relaxed fashion. No more hold ups, no more holiday tailbacks! With Pitter Yachtcharter you now have the option of starting and ending your cruise Wednesdays. Arriving and checking in midweek is hassle free and faster. Due to your mid week departure you will also find moorings and marinas are less likely to be booked out. Our Wednesday-to Wednesday charter programme is available from our bases in Veruda, Zadar, Biograd, Murter and Trogir.

Oneway-Charter

In 2019 we offer, upon enquiry, one-way charter possibilities in Greece and in Turkey, from Göcek to Bodrum.

Sailing with Skipper

Don't have a sailing licence?
... or not enough experience for an easy-going family holiday?

When sailing with a skipper, you can enjoy all advantages of a cruise without the extra responsibility of being the skipper.

Sailing experience is therefore not needed. No matter how much experience you have, our professional skippers will take you to the most beautiful ports and bays, have an array of special tips and know the best restaurants.

If you wish, you can ask the skipper to show you the ropes and get a feel for skippering yourself, or just relax and leave the rest to your skipper on board.

Skipper training Croatia

Pitter Yachtcharter offers you the opportunity to complete skipper training on sailing yachts, (monohull) and catamarans in Croatia from the bases in Biograd (Marina Kornati) and Pirovac.

Punat (Krk), Veruda (Pula) NEW

Our most northernmost base in the marina Veruda, next to the historic town of Pula and Punat on the west coast of the island of Krk, are great for cruises in the sheltered gulf of Kvarner Golf and along the coast of Istria, up north or down south.

Visit the medieval towns of Rovinj, Porec, Novigrad and Umag. Or sail south to explore the islands of Cres, Krk, Losinj, Rab or the small islands of Ilovik, Premuda, Silba and Olib.

In front of the historic town of Pula there is an island group, a national park by the name of Brijuni, which is really worth a visit.

Zadar, Sukosan, Biograd, Pirovac, Murter, Sibenik

Our bases in the heart of Dalmatia are perfectly situated to explore the islands of the Kornati national park. Crystal clear waters, numerous small fishing villages and a sea of small sparse islands dominate the landscape.

Or visit the forested islands of Pasman, Ist, Iz, Molat, Olib, Zut or the large island of Dugi Otok with its fabulous beaches and its national park Telašćica; or go further towards Premuda and Silba and up to the islands of Rab and Losinj.

In the southern part of Dalmatia you can visit the bays of the Murter peninsula, the small islands of Zlarin, Kaprije, Kakan, Zirje and the many historic coastal towns.

Here you will also find the famous Krka national park with its tremendous waterfalls.

Trogir, Split The gate to the South

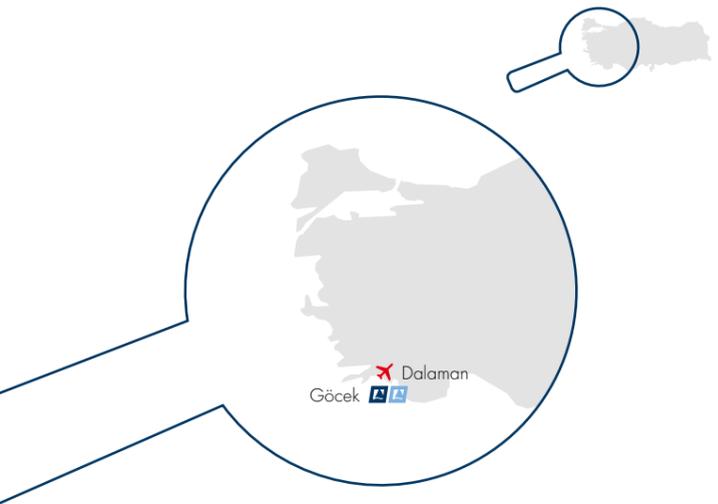

Our two Pitter bases in Trogir and our charter partner base in the Split city marina are ideal departure points to visit the islands of Solta, Brač, Hvar, Vis, Korčula, Lastovo and Mljet.

A two-week cruise will give you enough time to sail to Dubrovnik and back.

Go north and you will come across the island of Drevnik and via Primosten to the islands of Zlarin, Kaprije, Kakan and Zirje up to the famous waterfalls of Krka and Sibenik.

The UNESCO world heritage town of Trogir and Split with its historic city centre offer, as a departure point, various cultural sights with a unique flair.

The Ionian Islands are amongst the most beautiful in Greece. Wonderful beaches, secluded bays, small villages with tranquil mooring spots and the typical white, steep cliffs will make your sailing holiday special in deed. Explore Sivota and Vasiliki, on the south coast of the island; the southern neighbouring island of Kefalonia and Ithaka, or the islands Kalmos and Kastos islands near the main land are just a few of the endless possibilities following in the foot steps of Ulysses.

Lavrion

The Olympic Marina in Lavrion, situated in the vicinity of Athens, is the ideal departure point to visit the Saronic gulf. Visit the islands of Ägina, Poros, Hydra and Spetses. Further south you can find the Peloponnese with its unique ancient Greek sites and numerous untouched bays and ports. If you sail east you can enjoy the Greek summer in the Cyclades.

Volos NEW

The gulf of Volos and the Northern Sporades is an original estuary full of diversity. A relaxed holiday far away from mass tourism. This is a place for sailors looking for peace and quiet. The only exception is the island of Skiathos, which is, due to its easy access via plane, popular with tourists. Famous for its white sandy beaches, therefore called the Greek Carribean, is Skiathos; a welcome change to the otherwise secluded bays.
